As a CAMERA OPERATOR and VIDEO JOURNALIST :

I know how to tell a story with my shots :

Theoretical, Technical and Practical knowledge of cameras (and sound)
 Ability to frame and compose shots in all situations
 Work Quickly
 Ability to work under pressure and manage deadlines
 Take sole responsibility where only one camera operator is involved
 Attention to details
 Demonstrate a good awareness of health and safety issues

As a DIRECTOR :

I know how to manage a team and get them to be part of the story

Researching, verifying and collecting information to support a story
 Write a pitch, Write and tell the voice over
 Identifying necessary resources and managing crew for location shot
 Conducting interviews both live and recorded
 Adapt running order during broadcast if necessary
 Work with the editor to create a film
 Managing people

About me :

As a former High Level Competitor, I kept the tenacity.

I'll never give up and always solve problem of any kind, during preparation or broadcast.

I have been traveling all around the world and I love that... discovering people and cultures. We can tell many stories with shots, that's why I love my job.

It's wonderful to share and to enable people to discover a lot by this way.
